

Figure 1. An illustration of the range of animal responses to physical, chemical, or biotic stressors. The mortality values in the right end of the spectrum reflect phenomena that are known to be lethal, but only in a portion of cases.

